Risk Considerations: Risk factors you should consider before investing: The value of investments and any income will fluctuate and investors may not get back the full amount invested. Where the Fund's Investment Manager has expressed views and opinions in this factsheet, these may change.

The Fund invests in foreign markets which involve risks such as social and political instability, market illiquidity, currency fluctuations and limited regulation. Additionally, investing in emerging market countries may be less liquid and more volatile than securities markets in more developed markets or in companies that are less well-established and substantially smaller. These companies may often experience significant price volatility and potential lack of liquidity due to low trading volume of their securities.

All performance data on this factsheet are in GBP currency. Changes in exchange rates may have an adverse effect on the value, price, or income of the product. Whilst the Company aims to ensure the accuracy of the data contained in the factsheet, it is provided for information purposes only. It should not be relied on as the basis for making an investment decision.

Operational risk: management, business or administration processes, including those to do with the safekeeping of assets, may fail, leading to losses.

Counterparty risk: a counterparty may fail to deliver the proceeds related to the sale of securities by the Fund or in safekeeping of the securities purchased by the Fund.

Securities risk: some of the markets or exchanges on which the Fund may invest may go up and down, and the value of your investment may not increase.

Emerging Markets risk: countries where investment markets are considered to be less developed. Investments are generally riskier than those in developed markets because they: may not be as well regulated and laws may be less sophisticated, may be more difficult to buy and sell, may have less reliable arrangements for the safekeeping of investments, or may be more exposed to political and taxation uncertainties. The value of the Fund can go up and down more often and by larger amounts than funds that invest in developed countries, especially in the short term.

The Summary Risk Indicator ("SRI") shown on page 1 of this document represents the risk and return profile as presented in the Key Information Document ("KIID"). The lowest category does not imply that there is no risk. The SRI is not guaranteed and may change over time.

All investments involve risks. The risk information in this document is intended to give an idea of the main risks associated with this Fund. Any of these risks could negatively impact the value of the Fund. Please refer to the Prospectus and KIID available via the links on page 1 of this document for further information on risks.

Investors should consider the investment objectives, risks and expenses of any investment carefully before investing as described in the Prospectus.
